Philip Clement

Frontend Developer & UI/UX Designer
Lagos, Nigeria | Portfolio: ace-tech1.github.io/Acetekh

Professional Summary

Frontend Developer & UI/UX Designer with a software engineering background, focused on creating clean, intuitive, and high-performance digital experiences. I blend design thinking with efficient code to transform ideas into responsive, user-friendly interfaces. Actively building real-world web projects while expanding into mobile development and data engineering.

Technical Skills

- Frontend & UI: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript (ES6+), React.js, Next.jTailwind CSS, Bootstrap, Responsive Design
- UI/UX: Figma, Design Systems, Accessibility Basics
- Mobile: React Native (learning), Flutter (learning)
- Data Science : Python (learning), R programming (learning), Sql(Learning)
- Tools: Git & GitHub, VS Code, Chrome DevTools

Projects

Personal Portfolio Website — Frontend Developer
Designed and developed a modern personal portfolio showcasing projects, skills, and branding. Focused on clean code, clear hierarchy, responsiveness, and performance.
Tech: HTML, CSS, JavaScript showcasing projects, skills, and branding. Focused on cleancode, clear hierarchy, responsiveness, and performance.

Experience

Frontend Developer — Personal & Practice Projects (2024 – Present)
• Built responsive web interfaces and components with a strong focus on UI/UX principles
• Translated design concepts into functional, high-performance interfaces
• Continuously refined layouts, interactions, and code quality

Education

APTECH Computer Education — Software Engineering (2024 – Present)

Brand Statement: The Catalyst — Turning ideas into intuitive, high-performance digital experiences.